Online Homework Sessions

These live one-hour sessions have proven extremely popular with students.

The students overwhelmingly enjoyed the opportunity to pose questions and receive instant answers online from our subject experts. It's also proven particularly beneficial for Advanced Higher students who may be studying more independently.

The sessions, usually held in the evening, cover specific themes throughout the year. See our current schedule at:

Raising attainment

An independent survey showed that:

- 95% of students would recommend the programme to their friends
- Students were enthusiastic about having out-of-school access to online resources
